

DOWIE IN RAGE, CROWD LEAVES

Two Thousand Persons Quit
Madison Square Garden During Second Meeting To-day and Prophet Gets Angry.

ASSAILS REV. DR. HILLIS AND CALLS HIM A LIAR.

Declares He Will Spank the Minister, as He Did in Chicago, and Refers to Him in Vile Language.

HARSH NAMES WHICH DOWIE HAS APPLIED TO NEW YORK.

In announcing his coming to New York Dowie has variously alluded to this city as:

"Hell-hole."
"Not New York, but New Gomorrah."
"Stronghold of Satan."
"Cesspool of the world."
"New York ministers are snivelling hypocrites protected by the cloth of Christ."
"New York and its putrid press."
"Put a tent over it and it is one seething brothel."
"Its best families are the most immoral."
"Where a premium is placed on licentiousness."
"The foulness of the earth has centred in New York."

Two thousand of the unregenerate persons of this city and 1,000 of Dowie's Restoration Host were seated in Madison Square Garden at the second meeting to-day when the Prophet Elijah III. entered to give a discourse on divine healing. This and the condemning newspapers and their representatives are his favorite topics.

Soon after the unregenerate got a good look at Dowie and had heard his first words there were only 1,000 left in the garden and they were of the faithful host who had been commended to sit still.

Dowie's anger yesterday because the people left his meeting was not to be compared with his mood to-day when the 2,000 fled out of the Garden before the service was fairly commenced. "Prophet" roared up and down the platform; he belabored and roared at the 500 guards, at the aged and coddling people he had brought with him from Zion City; at the newspaper representatives; at the police and all the time at the crowds who were filing out of the Garden.

Sit Down, His First Order.

On reaching the platform Dowie's first words were: "Sit down!" He roared until he could be heard on Broadway. He yelled them until he was crimson and then purple in the face. People stood up to see the full performance.

"I will have an orderly meeting here or know why," he shouted.

More people left. He shouted:

"Look those doors!" Dowie ordered, but the police would not permit it.

Mrs. Jane Dowie, his wife, then came forward and started to read something from the Bible, but she could not be heard, so great was the noise made by those leaving. Dowie roared across the platform, shook his fat fist at the departing crowd and roared:

"You will sit down! I will not have Mrs. Dowie crack her voice on you!"

But more people left.

"Who's that woman going up those stairs?" shouted the Prophet. "Ah, a scrubwoman. Well, let her stop scrubbing. I want quiet here. Straighten up, guards; you look like your backbones were broken. Who's that man with a hat on back there? Take him to the door and give him a little restoration talk, guards. It takes a lot of grace and grit to hold a meeting in this city. Now, I'll say something if there is not this noise. Sit still!"

This last was shouted in such frenzy that the Prophet's face turned red, then purple.

"This is all caused by the newspapers—the lying 'lifers of the press,'" said Dowie. "But never mind; I have a message straight from God which I will deliver to them to-night. I'll burn them to the ground."

By this time the unregenerate were well out of the Garden, and Mrs. Dowie continued her reading of the Bible.

Assails Dr. Hillis.

Dowie's sermon on divine healing was about anything but his topic. From beginning to end it was vituperation, reprimand, attempted vindication, bil-linate and self-laudation.

He was thoroughly angry and twice, when his tongue was running away from him, Mrs. Dowie pulled his coattails and then he would become calm for a moment, only to break out again.

"I am going to spank Dr. Nowell Dwight Hillis, that naughty boy," he said. "He has been writing lies to the newspapers about me. I spanked him in Chicago and I spanked him so good that it was hard for him to sit down. And I'll do it again. The liar! The mean dog! And I'll do the same for Dr. Thomas B. Gregory."

"Would you have given $200,000 to build schools?" he shouted into the audience, pretending he was addressing Dr. Hillis. "No. No one would trust you with two cents. You shameful liar, you dirty dog."

"I want to say that there won't be any healing here at this meeting or at any meeting. You have to be cleansed and saved first before you can be healed. You stinks pots, you beer pots, you money pots!"

"But I want to say that if you are saved you can get just as much healing here as you could from man (meaning Christ) fifteen hundred years ago."

"I have been prosperous and you prosper. I have been poor and you prosper. I have been sick and you prosper. I have been dead and you prosper. And you say 'be healed'!"

"I have been prosperous and you prosper. I have been poor and you prosper. I have been sick and you prosper. I have been dead and you prosper. And you say 'be healed'!"

"I have been prosperous and you prosper. I have been poor and you prosper. I have been sick and you prosper. I have been dead and you prosper. And you say 'be healed'!"

Cammeyer stamped on a shoe means Standard of Merit

Some Straight Talk About Shoes.

Shoemaking is a business that is not mastered in a day. We have been in it for years. In the years that we have been in this business we have built up the largest retail shoe business in the world.

Discriminating men and women, not only in Greater New York, but all over the world, insist on buying Cammeyer shoes. Why? Because they have found that they can get more good quality, better shoemaking and smarter styles for their money at Cammeyer's than anywhere else.

Four shoes especially invite attention.

For Women: Standard, $3.00. Crest, $5.00.
For Men: Harvard, $3.00. Varsity, $5.00.

That "Cammeyer" stamped on a shoe means "Standard of Merit" is proven by these four good styles.

FALL BROKE HIS NECK.

Jersey City Man Found Dead After Stumbling on Stairs.

James Shannon, twenty-three years old, fell downstairs at No. 77 Railroad avenue, Jersey City, to-day, and his neck was broken. He lived with his brother-in-law, Hugh Nolan, on the third floor.

Shannon, who lives in the house, heard Shannon stumble and found him dead on the second floor at the foot of the stairs. It is supposed the man missed his footing and fell backward.
